 - The party for which the Written Submission has been prepared.
 - Name of the forum resolving the dispute.
- vi) There will be a deduction of 1.0 mark for each page exceeding the 25 page limit, and a deduction of 0.25 marks for each 'objective' error, i.e., non-adherence to the rules set out hereinabove. This negative marking (along with the negative marking for delayed submission) shall be deducted once from the total memorial score obtained by a team.

14. SCORING OF MEMORIALS

- The Qualifying Teams for the Oral Rounds shall be determined on the basis of a team having scored a minimum of 7 marks out of 20 in their total Memorial Score as marked in the Memorial Round.
- The memorials shall be checked by a panel of three judges. Each judge shall score each memorial out of 20 marks, and the average of scores shall be announced by the Organizers on the conclusion of the Preliminary Rounds on 14.01.2017. The ranking of teams shall be on the basis of the average of their scores for the Appellant and Respondent Memorials (after appropriate deductions, if any).

- The scoring criteria for memorials shall be as follows:

Application of Facts	25%
Reasoning	25%
Use of Authorities and Precedent	25%
Understanding Law and Procedure	15%
Presentation	10%

15. ORAL ARGUMENTS

- The language of the Court shall be English
- Each team would be given 30 minutes to present their oral arguments, subject to a maximum of 20 minutes per Speaker in the Preliminary Rounds and Quarter Final Rounds. This shall include the pleadings and any rebuttal time, if applicable. For the Semi Finals and Final Rounds, each team would get 40 minutes each, subject to a maximum of 25 minutes per Speaker.
- Judges, at their discretion, may extend oral argument time upto a maximum of 10 minutes per team.
- Rebuttal would be allowed only to the Applicant. The Applicant will have to specify the length of time they want to set aside for rebuttal, before beginning their oral arguments.

- 16. During the Preliminary Rounds, each team shall have to argue once for the Applicant and once for the Respondent. It is clarified that participating team shall argue for the both the Appellants and Respondents in one session of Preliminary Round itself.

17. Teams with two wins in the Preliminary Rounds will go to the Octafinal Round. If there are more than 16 teams having two wins each, the teams with two wins each will be ranked according to their Memorial scores and the top sixteen teams so ranked will go to the Octafinal Round. If after ranking of the memorial scores, teams are still tied, the teams so tied will be ranked according to their total scores (excluding memorial scores). If there are less than sixteen teams having two wins each, the teams having two wins each will go through to the Octafinal Round. For the remaining places, teams having less than two wins each will be ranked according to the sum of their highest scores in both the Preliminary Rounds (excluding their Memorial scores), and the top sixteen teams thus ranked will be sent to the Octafinal Round. The Octafinal Round shall be a knock out round.
18. The Octafinal Round shall be succeeded by the Quarterfinal Round, the Semifinal Round and the Final Round.
19. The Octafinal Rounds shall be conducted at the discretion of the Organizers dependent on the number of teams qualifying for the Oral Rounds. In the absence of the Octafinals, the procedure prescribed in Rule 17, shall be followed for the Quarter Finals, with the exception that the number of teams will be 8 instead of 16.
20. If a team scheduled to take part in a round does not appear for 10 minutes after the scheduled start of the round, a walkover shall be declared in favour of the team present.

SCORING

Memorial	20%
Response to questions and Articulation	20%
Use of Authorities and Precedents	20%
Reasoning in the Application of Principles	20%
Application of Facts	10%
Advocacy skills, Court Craft and Demeanour	10%

NOTE: The marks allotted for "Reasoning in the Application of Principles" shall be awarded to teams which demonstrate as to why a principle of law derived from precedent or otherwise is well-founded and desirable. Example: If the problem involves an issue regarding the inadmissibility of hearsay evidence, marks allotted for "Reasoning in the Application of Principles" shall not be awarded for citing precedent regarding the exclusion of hearsay evidence, but for providing cogent reasoning as to why such hearsay evidence is unreliable and hence, inadmissible.

MISCELLANEOUS

21. Two team prizes, one prize for the best memorial and individual prizes for the Best speaker and 2nd Best Speaker will be awarded. The two speakers and the researcher will be awarded certificates of participation.
22. The Organizers shall provide the accommodation, food and local transport (from the place of accommodation to the venue for the competition) to the participating teams only from one day prior to the Competition upto 18 hours after the conclusion of the Competition.

23. All queries relating to the problem / marks etc. may be directed vide email to info@kkkluthramoot.org. Periodically, all queries / answers are put up on the website. Teams are encouraged to review the same, before sending fresh queries.
24. Participants shall use only their URN numbers for identification purposes. No electronic device, including (but not limited to), laptops, tablet computers, mobile phones etc. may be used by any member of the teams during the course of the round, including when the opposite team is addressing arguments. Teams are therefore advised to ensure that the delivery of their oral arguments is not dependent on electronic devices.
25. Scouting by any person and on behalf of any team should be brought to the notice of the organizers immediately, without disturbing the round in progress. Any team found scouting will be disqualified.
26. Any reference to identity of a team's institution or individual team members, either during oral arguments or in the Memorial may lead to disqualification of the team.
27. The Rules shall be strictly adhered to. The organizers reserve the right to disqualify teams for deviating from the Rules. The Organizers will resolve any contingencies that may arise and will be the final arbiters regarding any doubts/grievances. The decision taken by the Organizers shall be final. These Rules are not exhaustive.
